Sf sound

an evening of 21st century clarinet music by a collection of bay area composers performed by matt ingalls -- with an eclectic mix of works featuring modernist sonata forms, minimalistic variations, electroacoustic noise, structured improvisation, and explorations of the clarinet timbre.

Kazue Sawai has been an innovator of unlikely sounds and techniques for the bass koto since she started studying the instrument at age eight. Don't miss this one night only performance of koto and computerized music with Kazue Sawai and special Bay Area guests Carl Stone, Michiyo Koga, Tamie Kooyenga, Shirley Muramoto, and from Japan Noriko Tsuboi.

Happy 2001

Already it looks like it is going to be a good one for Bay Area Creative Music! - and so it will be for the transbay™! In the next few months, you will see an enlarged paper size, articles, reviews, and an increase in our distribution network. Through these changes, we hope to increase the awareness, legitimacy, and audience base for what we feel is one of the most interesting music scenes in the US! As always, Contact us if you are interested in being a part of this fine rag, we could really use your help!
